

What Else

Shamir

I don't know what I want
But I want what's coming to me
Hold my breath, then I jump
Don't really know what's waiting beneath

What else am I to do
I'm stuck between a rock and a hard place and can't pull through
h
I might be falling apart
Rock bottom is a new start while taking shots in the dark

I don't have much to say
Than what I've been feeling lately
Just wanna pave my own way
Since there's no path waiting for me

What else am I to do
I'm stuck between a rock and a hard place and can't pull through
h
I might be falling apart
Rock bottom is a new start while taking shots in the dark

What else am I to do
I'm stuck between a rock and a hard place and can't pull through
h
I might be falling apart
Rock bottom is a new start while taking shots in the dark
While taking shots in the dark
While taking shots in the dark
