

Laren U Freht Ona

Shamrain

whisper my name
so i would know
touch my skin to show
that i'm still alive
break these fetters
the world has grown
around my heart
abandoned and cold
how can i live without you there is no love without you

i've tried to become alive again to get out of this night i've tried to become alive to live with a dead soul
i have tried

i cannot forget
i'm weary to try
now all my emotions
wither and die
i feel numb inside
break these fetters
the world has grown
abandoned and cold
i cannot live without you
