

Riverside Drive

Shane Harper

I can't make sense of this
I can't make sense of it
You know I'm too sensitive
My girlfriend just called it quits
Now she's back with her ex, that's some petty shit

Got rid of my apartment
Because the walls remember everything we lost
Don't have no car and now I've been ballin'
It's pretty low, I know on god
I know money doesn't fix your problems
But I think I'd rather cry inside an aston martin

She says, she says
That I know I'm moving on
She says, she says
That at least we tried it out
Now I know who you are
How you make me alive
I'm just thinking now I love you for the rest of my life
But I'm just too sensitive

She ruined everything
And I ruined everything, she'll better look at me
Her sister is married now
Just got back from the wedding, it all felt differently

I got my hands dirty
Because she loved the way it looked when he was alone
I burn a pack a day, one day it's gonna kill me
But I still keep waking up
I know time is supposed to fix your problems
But that's not true

She says, she says
That I know I'm moving on
She says, she says
That at least we tried it out
Now I know who you are
How you make me alive
I'm just thinking now I love you for the rest of my life
But I'm just too sensitive

You kept my heart and so I guess you bring it back to life
You ripped my heart and so I guess you put it back inside
You kept my heart and so I guess you bring it back to life
You ripped my heart and so I guess you put it back inside

She says, she says
That I know I'm moving on
She says, she says
That at least we tried it out
Now I know who you are
How you make me alive
I'm just thinking now I love you for the rest of my life
