I've written a thousand words I know Sorry, I love you and please don't goes I've waited so long, I'm sure it shows I've written a thousand words I know I'm wasting away A little more everyday Wait for me Wait for me When I asked you to stay How you're gonna go on your way Wait for me Wait for me Wait for me I've sold a million lies you spoke Over and over till we broke I know that it means everything To you but do you really think This time apart will mend and help us grow? I've told a million lies I know... I'm wasting away A little more everyday Wait for me Wait for me When I asked you to stay How you're gonna go on your way Wait for me Wait for me Wait for me Oh whoa... I'm wasting away A little more everyday Wait for me We're wasting away A little more everyday Wait for me Wait for me When I asked you to stay How you're gonna go on your way Wait for me Wait for me Wait for me My love Don't tell me that it's over My love Can't take it anymore My love

Is staring at the future

My love
Is staring at the door
Don't wait for me
