

Mercy Reigns

Shane & Shane

She hides her face, it seems too good
For Your embrace to find her
And say my dove, "your voice is sweet
Show me your form...your form is lovely"

You mercy reigns, Your mercy comes
Your mercy falls, it rises with the sun

You mercy reigns, Your mercy comes
Your mercy falls, it rises with the sun

It's new every morning...
It's new every morning...
It's good enough for me

No ear has heard a melody
As sweet as Yours for her
It seems too good, so undeserved
My heart faints now, for we are her...

You mercy reigns, Your mercy comes
Your mercy falls, it rises with the sun

You mercy reigns, Your mercy comes
Your mercy falls, it rises with the sun

I will abide in Your love, Your love, yeah

You mercy reigns, Your mercy comes
Your mercy falls, it rises with the sun

You mercy reigns, Your mercy comes
Your mercy falls, it rises with the sun

It's new every morning...
It's new every morning, yeah
Oh, yeah

It's new every morning...
It's new every morning...
It's good enough for me
