

Only One

Shane & Shane

Every knee will bow down
And every tongue confess you are Lord
Jesus, the King of heaven here on earth
There's only one

And we crown Him with every crown
The Lamb upon the throne
Awake, awake my soul and sing of His love
'Cause there's only one

Now to Him who tore down
Every wall with His own blood
Jesus, His body offered to atone
For sinners like us

See the way He conquers
Rising over death and the grave
Jesus, His glory shining like no other
There's only one

And we crown Him with every crown
The Lamb upon the throne
Awake, awake my soul and sing of His love
'Cause there's only one

There's only one King, only one Savior
Only one worthy of our endless praise
There's only one Lord, only one champion
Only one on the throne forever reign

There's only one King, only one Savior
Only one worthy of our endless praise
There's only one Lord, only one champion
Only one on the throne forever reign

And we crown You with every crown
Oh Lamb upon the throne
Awake, awake my soul and sing of His love
'Cause there's only one

We crown You with every crown
Oh Lamb upon the throne
Awake, awake my soul and sing of His love
There's only one
Awake, awake my soul and sing of His love
'Cause there's only one
