

Wounded

Shane & Shane

Why since you've wounded my heart
Don't You heal it?
Why don't You heal?
And why since you've stolen my heart
Do you leave it so?
Oh this heart of stone

Why don't you carry away my heart
You have stolen and left here broken
Why don't you carry away my heart
Already taken

Awaken the dawning of a new heart
Where stone begins to bleed
For the arrow of God that runs through me
Leaves me in need
Here in need

Awaken

How long? How long? How long?
