

Bone Dry

Shania Twain

I'm on the verge of leaving everything
All you have to do is read my mind
Honestly, I'm falling sleepy don't
Keep me waiting this time
Tonight the only tears I have depends how hard you make me laugh

Bone Dry and surfing (surfing high, about the ageless)
About the ageless (frozen in time, all the faces)
Frozen in time (faces come by)
All the faces (motionless eyes)
Motionless eyes (colors fading, too much sunshine)
Colors fading (so much blue sky, Bone Dry)
Too much sunshine
So much blue sky
And I'm Bone Dry

The river's higher than it's ever been
Let's dive in and try to turn
I can't swim
beneath my skin I feel the rage
I feel the rush
If today is all we have then it's too late to make me sad

Bone Dry and surfing (surfing high, about the ageless)
About the ageless (frozen in time, all the faces)
Frozen in time (faces come by)
All the faces (motionless eyes)
Motionless eyes (colors fading, too much sunshine)
Colors fading (so much blue sky, Bone Dry)
Too much sunshine
So much blue sky
And I'm Bone Dry

Bone Dry
Bone Dry
Blue skies, bone dry

Bone Dry
