I am a woman
Respect and cherish my depth, passion, and sensuality
My drive, my reach, my originality
I am a woman
A beautiful, grown woman
Therefore, I have the power to walk in my light
Love with all that is in me
Be a mother and a wife
And sing until my voice is no more
And break down any door that is attached to a room that locks u p my gifts
I refuse to lose
I am not too tall, too wide, too much woman too soon
This is my season, I'm gonna live in it That's what I'm supposed to do
'Cause when the god in me rules, I exist in my truth
All I have to do is whisper into the heavens to make the gray s kies blue
Yes, yes, I got it like that Unwavering joy and peace
Enough to call all darkness to shrink and bow to me
I am a woman
And from my heart leaps a boldness that no one can beat or make sleep inside of me
I'm that force, I'm that fast
I'm not layaway or credit, I'm just straight cash
This CD is built to last
Every Woman Dreams, put it on blast
