

Reason

Shanice

I gave me all to you
And you made it easy to fall in love
I fell in love with someone you pretended to be
Was too blind when I was with him now I see
So.....

[Chorus]

Don't you come back running
Now my heart is aching
I cannot find a reason to love you now
And don't you come back crying
Now that love is dying
I cannot find a reason to love you now
How can I love you now?

I thought my life was over
And I thought I'd never get over it
All the tears I cried were tears of pain
Tomorrow promises the pain will fade away
So.....

[Chorus]

Don't you come back running
Now my heart is aching
I cannot find a reason to love you now
And don't you come back crying
Now that love is dying
I cannot find a reason to love you now
How can I love you now?

Now, It was just a game to you
What you put through will come right back to someday
Don't think I'm wishing bad on you
Now that I know
You were only here to play
Don't you ever think you have a chance again
'Cause I deserve so much more
So don't.....

[Chorus]

Don't you come back running
Now my heart is aching
I cannot find a reason to love you now
And don't you come back crying
Now that love is dying
I cannot find a reason to love you now
How can I love you now
