

Embers in Your Eyes

Shannon Wright

Birds never sleep
On this mountain peak
In a borrowed town
The bells never ring

Piercing the sky
On a noon time flight
Casting down
These dampened streets

Your ember eyes
Outshine the night
Outshine the night
Hiding rivers from the sea

Your ember eyes
Outshine the night
Outshine the night
Hiding rivers from the sea

Your lie locked hair
On the back of your chair
Is the robe of a cavalier

Hours in the night
Soon will strike
This tower that we built

Your ember eyes
Outshine the night
Outshine the night
Hiding rivers from the sea

Your ember eyes
Outshine the night
Outshine the night
Hiding rivers from the sea
