

On the Riverside

Shannon Wright

Young and tender ones
Red and blue wagging tongues
So quiet in their sleep
Under the tales and through the tows
Bridges turn from new to old

Rush the river and jump the tides
Kids run round in summertime
Still anger runs through me

River's running through me

Rush the river and jump the tides
The kids run around in summertime
Still anger