

Planet Paprika

Shantel

I came with my spaceship to save the Earth
I've been to the South and I've been to the North
Check me I'm telling you to hear me sing
I'm an Ugly Duckling and a beauty king
I'm an alien Elvis I bring love and joy
My dance may remind you of the Disko Boy
I'm young and old I've got a hat of gold
I'm an ultimate kitsch to the people of the World
Some say that I come from Russia
Some think that I come from Africa
But I'm so exotic I'm so erotic
'Cause I come from the Planet Paprika
Ay-ay-ay
A citizen of Planet Paprika
Ay-ay-ay
Greetings from Planet Paprika
Some say that I come from Russia
Some think that I come from Africa
But I'm so exotic I'm so erotic

This planet is a mess we had to interfere
Now we are here so have no fear
You had to be stopped because enough is enough
While fighting for all you forgot about what
There's a war in the East, a war in the West
There's too much death and too little sex
Some say that I come from Russia

Some think that I come from Africa
But I'm so exotic I'm so erotic
'Cause I come from the Planet Paprika
Ay-ay-ay

I can be your super hero or James Bond
I'm coming your way and you can't resist
I know you want to be loved, you want to be kissed
-It's a live transmission of Paprika vibrations
The Aliens are coming to help the Nations - (x2)
