

Twin Galaxies

Shapeshifter

I remember the day
Still remember the time
I remember the place and the weather
When I heard the news about you

I recall what she said
On the morning I received the news
Nearly dropped to my knees from the message
How could this be true about you?

Things just ain't been the same
Since that day you ran away
I must be strong to carry on
But how I'm gone make it on my own

Physically rinsing me
Well and truly drenching me
All I need is room to breath
All I need is room to breath
Space to move
Place that does being me Spiritually

Cleansing me
Well and truly crushing me
All I need is room to breath
All I need is room to breath
Space to move
Place that does being me
