Shaquille O'Neal

Yo Kenny I want you to look in the phone book
Look up every model agency in the City of Los Angeles
And tell em about my new hundred-foot yacht that I just purchased
And tell em we about to do the ultimate pool party of the century
Hahaha, call em up, pool party, boogie all night
Hahaha, wha-wha-wha-wha

Yo invite the whole city well mainly the rap fans
And don't forget to bring a six pack for the trashcan and Fill up the pool with lots of water
Don't worry pops I got your daughter
I'll bring her home in one piece even though she came in a two piece
With those groupies it's a party you gotta move your body more often Walk in soft lookin lost you'll gets tossed in
So leave home the jackets and Tim boots
Cause all I wanna see is sandals and swim suits
And get the lotion out cause the sun out
Cause now ya at the party where the grub don't run out
No fights between blacks or whites
The vibe is tight big Shaq is on the Mic
So raise up the roof with both your hands wha-wha
And boogie to my pool jam

Bouncin hot let's get wet welcome to the pool jam
