

Curtain Call

Sharptooth

Did you get what you came to see?
Or am I only a memory?
Would I still be loved without these open wounds and scars and bruise
s?
Did you get what you want from me
Or am I just fading?
We'll find out in the end
But I find myself thinking and I just wanna know

Tell me now
Tell me now
Say it
Say it

Tell me now, do you love what you see?
Tell me now, as I rip apart at the seams
Tell me now, am I what you want me to be?
Cuz I've been hopeless, out of focus Tying rope I hope I choke with Tell me now, tragedy

When my light stops shining and all that's left is rust
You will all abandon me
This is a eulogy
I can't escape sorrows melody

After all the years
After all the years

Did you get what you came to see?
Or am I only a memory?
Would I still be loved without these open wounds and scars and bruise
s?
Did you get what you want from me
Or am I just fading?
We'll find out in the end
But I find myself thinking and I just wanna know

Ripe with spite
Ripe with spite

When my light stops shining and all that's left is rust
You will all abandon me
This is a eulogy
I can't escape sorrows melody

Bust it
