

Rise

Sharptooth

(I can't be silent anymore)

To tell the world your story you have got to leave your home

To build yourself an army, you can't do it on your own

To start a revolution, you've got to make a choice

To force the world to listen, you have got to raise your voice

We have the chance to take this somewhere

What are you waiting for?

What are you waiting for?

We have the chance to make a difference

What are you waiting for?

What are you waiting for?

With every single obstacle it's getting very clear

We share a common purpose and my rightful place is here

We've fought too hard, for way too long, so I will see this through

If I have you beside me then there's nothing we can't do

We have the chance to take this somewhere

What are you waiting for?

What are you waiting for?

We have the chance to make a difference

What are you waiting for?

What are you waiting for?

We will not wait for the sun to rise

We will not wait for the sun to rise

We will not wait for the sun to rise

I will rise

Rise Up

I will not wait for the sun to, I will not wait for the sun

I will not wait for the sun to, I will not wait for the sun
