

The Southern Strategy

Sharptooth

All financial fodder
Pigs sent to the slaughter
Ignorance is fostered
While your actions cost you

Platforms of illusion
Brittle, bold delusions
Wonder if it matters
Wait until it shatters
Will you learn?

And if they all willingly will bleed dry
Would we call it a murder or suicide?
Watch them set fires, nobody learns:
Rejoice while your beloved country burns

Demagogues
Who get treated like like Demigods
Fatal frauds
Orchestrating self-serving laws

Fear of unknown supersedes
Voting against your own needs
Blinded by red white and blue
But they don't give a fuck about you
They don't give a fuck about you
