

Shatta Wale On Joy FM's Personality Profile

Shatta Wale

My guest in the studio is Shatta Wale
You follow sounds like a very talented figure in your life (hmm)
Like, we've been talking for couple of, like twenty minutes
And all I hear is my dad, my dad, my dad
He is always a serious person (hmm)
A certain decisions he has taken has really built him
I was like nine years when our landlord sacked us from our house and we were staying somewhere crazy
You know, we were at a friend's saloon
Growing up, I never like being to them public bathrooms (hmm), you know them public places
So you were living in your own private space (yeah, yeah), now you have to share
But one day, I woke up and he told me, he got a house
That day I cried, I really saw my dad from another side of life (yeah)
So when we came down like that, you know
I was always feeling someway for him, how his friends will see him
How people gonna talk about him
You know, he really change my view
You know, change my mind off, like what I was seeing around
So that is why you know, I always like to call his name anywhere
'Cos I feel he is my motivation, he is my role model
I believe he is my Buju Banton as well
He is your Buju Banton? Hahahaha...
