

By Tomorrow

Shawn Austin

By tomorrow, you'll be somewhere not here, bound
Mr. Brightside on your radio with every window down
By tomorrow, you'll be somewhere over me
All your stuff stuffed in a box, phone in your empty shotgun se at

And I know, you kinda wanna leave right now
But before you go, baby just hear me out

There's half a bottle of red I'll never drink without you
There ain't no breaking up rules we gotta follow
Before we put it to bed girl put your love on me
I got some time and a t-shirt you can borrow
I won't beg you to stay, come on girl it's getting late
This heartbreak it can wait
We can always say goodbye tomorrow

Yeah by tomorrow, you'll be single as can be
So before you're gone let's go out on one more good memory
'Cause by tomorrow you'll be back to breaking hearts with those blue eyes
But girl while you're still mine, let me hold you one more time

Got half a bottle of red I'll never drink without you
There ain't no breaking up rules we gotta follow
Before we put it to bed girl put your love on me
I got some time and a t-shirt you can borrow
I won't beg you to stay, come on girl it's getting late
This heartbreak it can wait
We can always say goodbye tomorrow

I know, baby you made up your mind
But who knows, yeah who knows 'cause

There's half a bottle of red I'll never drink without you
There ain't no breaking up rules we gotta follow
Before we put it to bed girl put your love on me
I got some time and a t-shirt you can borrow
I won't beg you to stay, come on girl it's getting late
This heartbreak it can wait
We can always say goodbye tomorrow
