

Me Without You

Shawn Austin

Broadway late again
Into the AM
Cheap whisky, cheap love
Drink it down, catch a thrill
Headaches and Advil
It was never quite enough

And I don't recall the places or the faces from those days
No I don't remember much of anything

But I remember leaning in for that first kiss
The taste of red wine on your lips
My hands sliding down your hips
And you
Like a bolt of lightning, just like that
Changed my world, ain't looking back
Yeah, I remember everything with you
But I don't remember me
No, I don't remember me without you
Me without you

We could see our breath
45, maybe less
Keeping each other warm
1:11, getting late
Runnin' out of things to say
That's a memory that'll never fade

But I remember leaning in for that first kiss
The taste of red wine on your lips
My hands sliding down your hips
And you
Like a bolt of lightning, just like that
Changed my world, ain't looking back
Yeah, I remember everything with you
But I don't remember me
No, I don't remember me without you
Me without you

No, I don't recall the places or the faces from yesterday
No, I don't remember much of anything

But I remember leaning in for that first kiss
The taste of red wine on your lips
My hands sliding down your hips
And you
Like a bolt of lightning, just like that
Changed my world, ain't looking back
Yeah, I remember everything with you
But I don't remember me
No, I don't remember me without you
Me without you
Oh yeah
Me without you
Oh yeah
