

Analog Love

Shawn Hook

Baby

It's harder than we'd ever thought it'd be
Lately
All we do is talk into a screen
Say what you're tryin' to say, what you're tryin' to say to me
Breaking up, can't feel what you feel for me
Say what you're tryin' to say, nothing's getting clearer to me

Oh, we're living in déjà vu, electric kisses through
Split screens to analog form; are we gonna love through the changes?
Felt I was touching you, love in my hotel room
It felt like analog form, are we gonna love through the changes?
It felt like analog love, are we gonna love through the changes?
It felt like analog love, are we gonna love through the changes?

Baby

I'm holding on to what we used to be
Lately
This digital love is breaking down on me
I say what I'm tryin' to say, what I'm tryin' to say to you
Breaking up, can't feel what we used to
Say what I'm tryin' to say, nothing's getting clearer to you

Oh, we're living in déjà vu, electric kisses through
Split screens to analog form; are we gonna love through the changes?
Felt I was touching you, love in my hotel room
It felt like analog form, are we gonna love through the changes?
It felt like analog love, are we gonna love through the changes?
It felt like analog love, are we gonna love through the changes?

What you tryin' to say, what you tryin' to say to me?
What you tryin' to say, what you tryin' to say to me?
What you tryin' to say, what you tryin' to say to me?
What you tryin' to say, what you tryin' to say to me?
What you tryin' to say, what you tryin' to say to me?
What you tryin' to say, what you tryin' to say to me?
What you tryin' to say, what you tryin' to say to me?
What you tryin' to say?

Oh, we're living in déjà vu, electric kisses through
Split screens to analog form; are we gonna love through the changes?
Felt I was touching you, love in my hotel room
It felt like analog form, are we gonna love through the changes?
It felt like analog love, are we gonna love through the changes?
It felt like analog love, are we gonna love through the changes?
