

No Worries

Shaybo

Da-na, da-na, da-na, da-na, da-na-na

Every boy wanna put it pon me
Cah me look pretty in my slim body
She waan dis me, but she can't waan me
Mi live my best life, mi nah have worries
No worries, got no worries
I'm so at peace, for now at least, for now at least

Who would've thought I'd live like this?
Dressin' on the strip like this
Takin' big trips like this
Jumpin' on a plane from Italia to Spain
No busses, no more trains, I'll never slip again
Tell mommy and my daddy that I'm famous
Adidas gave me free trainers, ooh
It's funny how the table always changes
They love me now, but before they were hatin'

I'm just tryna live my dream, takin' life week by week
Lovin' ones beside me
Thank God because I breathe
Make a change before I leave, before I leave
Before I leave
Remember me, and all I did, and all I did

Every boy wanna put it pon me
Cah me look pretty in my slim body
She waan dis me, but she can't waan me
Mi live my best life, mi nah have worries
No worries, got no worries (Got no worries)
I'm so at peace, for now at least, for now at least (I'm so at peace, now at least)

Look
I ain't gon' worry too much, stackin' my currency up
You gettin' curved by the bitches, I be embarrassin' them
Maybe Ferrari today, maybe I'll Uber the car
Keep throwin' shots my way, I'll make 'em pour shots for they loss, ayy (Oh)
I'm not fallin' back, I'm 440, rappers is soft, ayy
I landed victorious, smoke a bag of that bomb, ayy
I fumbled it being humble, I'm braggin' some more
You turn your back on me once, you'll never contact me no more

I'm just tryna live my dream, takin' life week by week
Lovin' ones beside me
Thank God because I breathe
Make a change before I leave, before I leave
Before I leave
Remember me, and all I did, and all I did
