

Feathers

Shed Seven

Well, I might be superstitious
And I'm feeling kind of breathless
And I only hope if I can float I'll float away

And you may not be as gracious
'Cause I'm feeling just as restless
And I only hope that I don't choke on my dry throat

Lay magic on me
On the edge of my seat
Is where I [?] be

I won't survive without
The dreams you leave [?]
The things you thought were deep
Will fall like feathers in your sleep
About time that you [?]
Another promise I won't keep

And you may not be as worthwhile
But you're still a ray of sunlight
And I only hope if I don't cope I'll float away

And I must have seen your good side
'Cause I'm feeling kind of tongue-tied
And I only hope that I don't choke on my dry throat

Lay magic on me
On the edge of my seat
Is where I [?] be

I won't survive without
The dreams you leave [?]
The things you thought were deep
Will fall like feathers in your sleep
About time that you [?]
Another promise I won't keep

Will fall like feathers in your sleep
About time that you [?]
Another promise I won't keep

Well I guess I'm superstitious
And I'm feeling kind of breathless
And I only hope if I can float I'll float away

Lay magic on me
On the edge of my seat
Is where I [?] be

I won't survive without
The dreams you leave [?]
The things you thought were deep
Will fall like feathers in your sleep
About time that you [?]
Another promise I won't keep
