

Everybody Wants You

SHeDAISY

Ravenous enough to swallow the lies
What on earth did we do
Before this town invented you
With life exaggerated
You must be so elated

How does it feel now that
Everybody wants you, everybody wants you
You're so ideal now that
Everybody wants you
Will you even cry, cry, cry
Falling from that high, high, high
Everybody wants you
Hey yeah oh

Through the gloss, looking smooth
Flash a smile that climatizes the room
But all the hype and hot air
Can't cover up what's under there
You're stylishly contagious
Until they flip the pages

How does it feel now that
Everybody wants you, everybody wants you
You're so ideal now that
Everybody wants you
Will you even cry, cry, cry
Falling from that high, high, high
Everybody wants you

What will you do when they don't, don't, don't want you
And how (how) will you feel
When you have to get real
Is this picture all too vivid
'Cause you look a little livid

How does it feel now that
Everybody wants you, everybody wants you
You're so ideal now that
Everybody wants you
Will you even cry, cry, cry
Falling from that high, high, high
Everybody wants you

Yeah, yeah, yeah everybody wants you
Everybody wants you
Everybody wants you (everybody wants you)
Everybody wants you (everybody wants you)
Everybody wants you
Everybody wants you
Everybody wants you

Oh, everybody
Everybody wants you, wants you
Yeah yeah, everybody wants you (yeah)
Everybody wants you, wants you

Yeah yeah, everybody wants you
