

Let Me Go Through This Alone

Sheena Easton

The way you make love feels so good
I hope my kisses make that understood
If I seem to be distant tonight
Oh, I'm sorry, I know it ain't right

Baby, there is someone
I can't run from someone from the past
Oh baby, I got to face it

So here is the one thing I ask
Let me go through this alone
Some things I got to work out on my own
It's no reflection on you
I'm just a little confused
If you love me baby you'll know
You've got to let me go through this alone

I know it's hard for you to believe
You've got to put your trust in me
In your arms is where I belong
I will come back to you
Twice as strong
Baby, I'll never hurt you
No I won't desert you
See your dreams are mine
And baby this I promise
All that I need is some time

When I look in your eyes
I don't want to feel
Like I have to lie
Got to go tell somebody else
