

Different

Shekhinah

In my own way yeah
In my own way yeah
In my own, In my own, own way yeah
You gotta know

Different in my own way
Rose Gold, baby, In my own shade, baby yeah
Living in a new age
Guess I'm just a limited edition
Not too many edits like me
No, you cannot wine and dine me
Guess I'm just a sucker for the independent momma drama
I'ma do whatever I can
Need you to understand I'm nothing like what you had I'm nothing like what you have

If you can give it I'm gonna
Promise to love you particularly
Just to the way you need
Put your heart in a special place
True colours all the way yeah
Baby, baby, baby, baby
You, you gotta know I'm different
You gotta know different
Different in my own way

Different in my own way
I know I got it
Don't care about it
Know all about it
I know I'm not meant to be yeah
Anything like what I see
Motivated by the way you think of me
I know, I know
No, I don't do this just the way that you do
I owe nothing to you
I gain nothing from you
I'm much too much for what you tryna prove
I can't be called your living proof, yeah

If you can get where I'm going
I Promise to love you particularly
Just to the way you need
Put your heart in a special place
True colours all the way yeah
Baby, baby, baby, baby
You, you gotta know I'm different
You gotta know different
Different in my own way
