

The Sound

Shekhinah

You keep on telling me this can't be all that I need to breathe in
That's all you ever talk about
All you ever talk about, yeah
It's selfish true true, but I'm just
Looking for a new sound
I'm tryna find a new style
See we're all about, yeah
We're all about the sound
So roll up outta here with all that talk, I don't wanna hear
We just need to hear
The sound, the sound, the sound, the sound yeah
Yeah louder
The sound, the sound, yeah
The sound, the sound, yeah
If you could feel the beating of my heart it fits perfect to that of the drums yeah

And I don't wanna ever lose this feeling (no way, no way)
Coz' it's must, and I know, I believe it
The sound, the sound, the sound yeah
The sound yeah

No, I never wanna lose this feeling
No, I never wanna lose this feeling
No, I never wanna
No, I never wanna
The sound yeah
No, I never wanna lose this feeling
No, I never wanna lose this feeling
No, I never wanna
No, I never wanna
The sound yeah

Nowadays I, learn to say my grace
I pray, I pray
For every note that I sing
And every moment I live
Another day in Africa
I know I'm blessed
Under her sun oh yeah, oh yeah
Can you feel it?
I pray the Lord, my God will take us higher than we dreaming
What you know about my Africans yeah?
Isn't anything we do, we do it good yeah?

And I don't wanna ever lose this feeling (do it, do we do it)
Coz' it's must, and I know, I believe it
The sound, the sound, the sound yeah
The sound yeah

No, I never wanna lose this feeling
No, I never wanna lose this feeling
No, I never wanna
No, I never wanna
The sound yeah
No, I never wanna lose this feeling
No, I never wanna lose this feeling

No, I never wanna
No, I never wanna
The sound yeah

You keep on telling me this can't be all that I need to breathe in
That's all you ever talk about
All you ever talk about, yeah
See we're all about, yeah
We're all about the sound, yeah

No, I never wanna lose this feeling
No, I never wanna lose this feeling
No, I never wanna
No, I never wanna
The sound yeah
No, I never wanna lose this feeling
No, I never wanna lose this feeling
No, I never wanna
No, I never wanna
The sound yeah

When all else fades
When all else fades, yeah
No, I never wanna lose this feeling
