

Temptation

Shelby Lynne

When I see you walkin' by
See the look that's in your eye
My poor heart just skips a beat
I feel the Earth move under me
I lose my sense of gravity
Ev'rything is in a spin
Lord, what am I to do?

Temptation, temptation
Should I give in to this temptation?
Temptation, temptation (that's right)
Should I give in to this sweet temptation?
Oh yeah

You left a trail of broken hearts
And I'd hate to see mine torn apart
I know that I should run away
But, these feet of mine ain't got no sense
They got me stuck up on this fence
Feel like I'm about to fall
Oh, what am I to do?

Temptation, temptation
Should I give in to this temptation?
Temptation, temptation (that's right)
Should I give in to this sweet temptation?
Oh yeah

Your reputation precedes you dear
For breakin' hearts and bringin' tears
And causing the blues
But, boy you sure are lookin' fine
And truth be known I am inclined to love you

Temptation, temptation
Should I give in to this temptation?
Temptation, temptation (that's right)
Should I give in to this sweet temptation?
Temptation!
Should I give in to this temptation?
Temptation, temptation (that's right)
Should I give in to this sweet temptation?
Oh yeah
Ah, yeah
Uh-huh... That's right
