

The Hurtin' Side

Shelby Lynne

I remember days of sweet sunshine
And the nights our love went on and on
And I still believe you'll come back to me
Cos it's too hard to think you're really gone

There's a river of feeling somewhere
And I'm told it flows deep and wide
But this mountain of memories I'm climbing
Keep me here on the hurtin' side

I can hear your voice whisper softly
I will love you until the day I die
And just think enough your warm love
Well it makes me break right down and cry
