Mantra

Earth can be a lonely place Blank stares on the people's face I contemplate their pointless chase That traps me and my friends

Is this the place where I belong? Where did we go wrong? Will it last real long? Are you too singing this song?

Sometimes I feel it Sometimes I feel all so alone And yes yes I must confess I feel so far from home Mantra take me home I trust you Mantra take me home Take me to the place where I belong

Life's a puzzle the thoughtful solve But most choose not to get involved Because of this we don't evolve Just look around my friend

And life's meaning can be hard to grasp All that's certain is it won't last We're all spirits looking for transcendence Oh mantra grant me that independence