True North

Shelter

I recognize this drive inside 'cause all my life kept me alive to push myself to work and strive to create a better life when all the world just seems unkind, when all the world has lost its mind, makes me want to rise and shine, makes me want to, want to find (Ohoh ohoh ohoh ohoh)
True north, my core, my dreams of what life means to me and all that I can be so I can feel that I've succeeded True north, I look inside, no one tells me wrong or right, a direction in my life so I feel satisfied

Each one of us born cause there's a gap to fill We fulfill it

It's not easy, I know it's true, discriminating shit vers' truth, group thinking makes fools of me and you so I'll force my mind to plow on through cause we're not a club or scene or shells but bloomin' individuals, each with needs and dreams and talents and goals, sit back and watch it unfold

(Ohoh ohoh ohoh ohoh)
True north, my core, my dreams of what life means to me
and all that I can be so I can feel that I've succeeded True north, I look inside, no one tells me wrong or right,
a direction in my life so I feel satisfied

Each one of us born cause there's a gap to fill
And now's the time to fulfill it

It's not easy, why would it be so I look deep inside of me and deeper and deeper before I see the direction toward my destiny

(Ohoh ohoh ohoh ohoh)
True north, my core, my dreams of what life means to me
and all that I can be so I can feel that I've succeeded True north, I look inside, no one tells me wrong or right, a direction in my life to keep me satisfied True north, my core, my dreams of what life means to me and all that I can be so I can feel that I've succeeded, true north, my core, my dreams, so I can feel that I've succeeded, of what life means to me, so I can feel that I've succeeded
and all that I can be so I can feel that I've succeeded,
true north, my core, my dreams, so I can feel that I've succeeded,
and all that I can be so I can feel that I've succeeded (Ohoh) (8x)
So I can feel that I've succeeded
