I'll Be Your Everything

Shenandoah

When it seems the world is closin' in
And you can't find you one true friend
When your rope is at it's end, just listen

I'll pick you up when you get down
I'll set your feet here on solid ground
I'll turn your whole life around if you'll let me

I'll be your first breath in the morning
I'll be the first beat of your heart
I'll be the glimmer of sun that comes and breaks the dark
I'll be your constant reminder there's something good about tod ay
Just let me lead the way, I'll fill your every need
I'll be your everything

You haven't learned to let go yet
Drowning in a sea of regret
Now the shame of your past won't let you forget, but I will

I'll flow over you like a melody
Oh, and flood your soul with perfect peace
Just when you expect it least, I'll be here

I'll be your first breath in the morning
I'll be the first beat of your heart
I'll be the glimmer of sun that comes and breaks the dark
I'll be your constant reminder there's something good about tod
ay
Just let me lead the way, I'll fill your every need
I'll be your everything

Just let me lead the way, I'll fill your every need
I'll be your everything
