

Hangover

Shenseea

Have me in my feelings
Tell me if I'm tripping
Your love so good it feels like drugs
Kisses like honey
Baby keep it coming
You give me that electric buzz

Maybe we won't ever get no higher
Maybe love will burn up and get tired
I'd rather take a chance and walk the wire
Till gravity pulls me back down, oh

It's gonna hurt when we break up
But good nights are worth the hangover
So why don't we stay in the moment
And ride pon dis wave till it's over
Oh the feeling's gonna be so bitter sweet
It's gonna hurt when we break up
But good nights are worth the hangover (Yeah)
It's gonna hurt when we break up
But good nights are worth the hangover
It's gonna hurt when we break up
But good nighta are worth the hangover

Baby we drunk in love and it's reckless
Know you ain't good for me so I expect it
And usually I never have doubts
But I just can't see us work out
I'ma give it up till we go south
I can find another you right now
But what's that gonna do
If that niggas just like you, ooh ooh
I'm abusing me 'cause I ain't choosing me
It's like me lose self respect
To how you got me addicted

It's gonna hurt when we break up
But good nights are worth the hangover
So why don't we stay in the moment
And ride pon dis wave till it's over
Oh the feelings gonna be so bitter sweet
It's gonna hurt when we break up
But good nights are worth the hangover (Yeah)
It's gonna hurt when we break up
But good nights are worth the hangover
It's gonna hurt when we break up
But good nights are worth the hangover
(Good nights are worth the hangover)
Worth the hang, worth the hangover
Worth the hang, worth the hangover
