Sun Comes Up

Shenseea

Like a seed in the soil
You just haven't grown yet
The power you hold, you don't even know yet
But, baby, I know to lead is your purpose
It's deep in your bones, of this I am certain

You fight with the noise in your head
Gotta lot of weight on your chest
It'll be all right in the morning
Right come morning, right come morning

I see it in your eyes
I know you're gonna rise up
Up when the sun comes up
Up when the sun comes up
Hold your head high
I know you're gonna rise up
Up when the sun comes up
Up when the sun comes up

I see no dark when the sun comes up
I see no dark when the sun comes up
It's a new day when the sun comes up
We rise again
I see no dark when the sun comes up
I see no dark when the sun comes up
It's a new day when the sun comes up
We rise again

I can see your potential even if you don't
Lift ya chin up at the person in the mirror
One day you'll know, one day you'll know
You'll find yourself in a crisis
Promise you it won't always be like this
All your scars heal up
The top is where the bottom ends up
And I want you to know
You're beautiful even with your flaw
Me know you battling a different kind of war
Even if you never seen it you feel it
Just stop and stare for a minute, like it

I see it in your eyes
I know you're gonna rise up
Up when the sun comes up
Up when the sun comes up
Hold your head high
I know you're gonna rise up
Up when the sun comes up
Up when the sun comes up

I see no dark when the sun comes up
I see no dark when the sun comes up
It's a new day when the sun comes up
We rise again
I see no dark when the sun comes up
I see no dark when the sun comes up

It's a new day when the sun comes up
We rise again
