

The Big Lie

Shihad

Corporate security
Imperial desires
Protecting businessmen
And their trophy brides

It's the year of distraction
It's a soul-free zone
It's the end to all action
And no one wants to know

Whatever the truth they've taken it
We're letting them get away with it
Have we had enough?

The Big Lie

We're reading articles
Where murder's sanitized
Signed off by men in suits
Who you won't recognize

It's a fucking disaster
It's a state of fear
It's an uncertain future
Get me out of here

State sanctioned executioners
Hungry for the kill
Borderline psychopaths
Who'll do it for the thrill
