Shinedown

We go left, right, left, right, left
We march into the black hole
To kill the sunset
We navigate scenario's
We compensate to keep control

Reset
Is this a test?
A mess, because we know what happens next
If your depressed, confess
Here's a pill you can ingest

Re-ject
Yea, what the hell did you expect?

I don't know if I, if I believe in you
I don't know if I want to, want to
I don't know if you can even tell the truth
I don't know if you want to, want to

Re-ject
Yea, what the hell did you expect?

We're turned in-side-out to find a match
Then uploaded to a file and spread around till we attach Turned up-side-down to feel exposed
Digging tunnels in the dark, might be the place you meet your soul

Re-ject
The information's incorrect.

I don't know if I, if I believe in you
I don't know if I want to, want to
I don't know if you can even tell the truth
I don't know if you want to, want to

Re-ject
Yea, what the hell did you expect?

Is that your best bet?
In your zombie like the rest
I'm not laughing cause its funny
If your not guilty why you running?

Re-ject [x4]

I don't know if I, if I believe in you
I don't know if I want to, want to
I don't know if I, if I believe in you
I don't know if I want to, want to

Re-ject
