My heart is yours (so you know I wanna be)
My heart is yours
My heart is yours

Oh my baby

I have to tell you something
How I wanna be with you... be with you, girl

The things that can't be seen still have a form
If you force your way into them, they'll break

Love is the key to the heart
Look, its the same, this miracle
It's okay to open up your heart

My feelings begin to pour out (ah ah ah)
This is my love (ah ah ah)
Additionally, more and more, it continues to grow
Right now
I can't tell you everything (ah ah ah ah)
I want to tell you one day (ah ah ah ah)
Even if it takes a thousand years
Always stay by my side

I'm also gently putting the puzzle pieces of memories
That you spoke about together with mine, that are so similar
It's not something anyone can see
I'm drawing a map of our future

Hidden in your eyes
Look, its the same, this sea of tears
It's ok to show me

My feelings begin to pour out (ah ah ah ah)
This is my love (ah ah ah ah)
Additionally, more and more, it continues to grow
Right now
I can't tell you everything (ah ah ah ah)
I want to tell you one day (ah ah ah ah)
Even if it takes a thousand years
Always stay by my side

Taking a ride on your name
Like going on a long trip
I want to go back before we met
And repaint our memories
One day, surely, I want to tell
The snow-white mountain campus
About you and I again and again

My feelings begin to pour out, this is my love
Additionally, more and more, it continues to grow
Right now
I can't tell you everything (ah ah ah ah)
I want to tell you one day (ah ah ah ah)
Even if it takes a thousand years
Always stay by my side

My heart is yours
My heart is yours (so you know I wanna be)
My heart is yours
My heart is yours

Oh my baby
