

Nightmare

SHINee

Who's that knocking on my door?

Come and dream a dream, girl
Come and dream a dream, girl
Come and dream a dream, girl
Come and dream a dream, girl

Right here Right now

With those lips sharp bite, broken mirror and you change
Those eyes look cold, everything was hot becomes ashes.

Come and dream a dream, girl
Thick shade
Come and dream a dream, girl
Sunlight, asleep (sleepy)

Nightmare, a vampire who took all I had
You are too far away to reach out and catch
Why don't you look back?

You, nightmare, when I can't have you burning
Like a handful of sand you keep scattering
Why are not you saying no?

So dangerous, you're so dangerous
Erase me with that sweet kiss, leaving me to my questions unanswered
Tempt me like a poisoned apple, with that beautiful scent, help me tonight

Come and dream a dream, girl
An endless descent
Come and dream a dream, girl
I see the moonlight

If I can't help it, then close my eyes and dream of you

Nightmare, the vampire who has blinded me
I've carved so deep in me that can't hide? (Cry for you)
I can't take it anymore (You're not answering, however, I call)

You, nightmare, (So in love) just that you think of me makes me Higher (much more baby)
The darkness comes and whispers, comes over and puts me in your arm (help me)

Come and dream a dream, girl
Come and dream a dream, girl
Come and dream a dream, girl
Come and dream a dream, girl

Come to me in a dream, watch out baby don't go, go back and help me again

Nightmare, a vampire who took all I had
You are too far away to reach out and catch
Why do not you look back?

You, nightmare, when I can't have you burning

Like a handful of sand you keep scattering
Why are not you saying no?
So Dangerous
