

Queen Of New York

SHINee

Yeah, the way she walks, the way she talks
This girl, she's like a queen, check it

On a rainy day, on that avenue, I found you I heard bells at a decibel that's higher than the Empire State building

Baby, when you walk over to me, you're so pretty, so pretty If it's alright, can I walk with you in the rain?
I want to be honest with you, I went crazy at first sight

In a rainy New York, I walked on that street without thinking, love is timing
Yes, New York, you're without a name but I want to stay with yo u in New York

We're under the same umbrella and our shoulders slightly bump We turn a corner and cross the street, my feet are moving but m y heart is ringing a warning alarm

When I steal glances at your long eyelashes, you're so pretty, so pretty
If you're nervous, can I hug you softly underneath the lights?
At this moment, I forgot all about my return ticket, yeah becau se you're mine

In a rainy New York, I walked on that street without thinking,
love is timing
Yes, New York, you're without a name but I want to stay with yo
u in New York

I'm a vagabond, a wanderer, so will you hold onto me for a mome nt?
If only this city would become my last stop

In a rainy New York, I walked on that street without thinking,
love is timing
Yes, New York, you're without a name but I want to stay with yo
u in New York

In a rainy New York, I walked on that street without thinking,
love is timing
Yes, New York, you're without a name but I want to stay with yo
u in New York
