You're my sunny side

I got here running without rest
Without caring for how others saw me
In the darkness, without looking back
I pretended to be strong, like I was fine
Thinking that I had to be perfect
To be loved

I am actually weak and brittle
I was suffocating and was on the verge of breaking down
Then you wrapped me up
Smiling compassionately
You were always by my side
And hope begins to sink in me

Come rain, come shine
You stayed by my side
Come rain, come shine
Gently, I lean on you
You're my sunny side

Don't worry, don't worry
Even if we can't see each other for a short while
Don't worry, don't worry
I will definitely come back

Let's love each other in peace, for a long time to come
Let's stay together, the two of us, forever

Come rain, come shine
You stayed by my side
Come rain, come shine
Gently, I lean on you
You're my sunny side

Come rain, come shine
Lighting up both my memories and my future
Come rain, come shine
[Please] stay by my side
You're my sunny side

Come rain, come shine
You continue to stay by my side
Come rain, come shine
So I lean on you even more
You're my sunny side
