

The Devil And The Angel

Shocking Blue

The devil and the angel are both been you.
The devil and the angel are both been you.

You can dance, make romance
And sometimes you are as cold as ice.
What goes on in your mind
When you say you'll never leave me behind?

The devil and the angel are both been you.
The devil and the angel are both been you.

You are sweet, you are neat,
But sometimes you change and make me cry.
You are fine, you're mine,
But sometimes you like to break my heart.
