

Ladies & Gentlemen

Short Stack

Ladies and gentlemen can I,
Say this story seems alive away from you
We'll hope for love on hotel floors
And write a history for teens with dreamer's truths

Then he looked her in the eyes
She considers hiding spades and trumps so bland
Such a crush wish for wings, in idle hands
And he said baby jump

Oh oh oh from the hospital
We're honorary members of the red carpet academy (and)
Oh oh oh from the hospital
We're honorary members of the red carpet academy

So wrap your lips around these lies
Wo oh oh oh and take your pills to stop the slip

Ladies and gentlemen, a truth,
A definition of a tongue packed full of slick
And this relationship will sink
In this hostile place of hospital soundtrack

Oh oh oh from the hospital
We're honorary members of the red carpet academy (and)
Oh oh oh from the hospital
We're honorary members of the red carpet academy

So wrap your lips around these lies
Wo oh oh oh and take your pills to stop the slip
Wo oh oh oh we're playing at a home team quarter breaker
(just to fall in love girl, love girl tonight)
We're swaying and the home team's swimming alone
But don't you swim alone tonight

She sang,
All this intimacy,
And it's stitched my throat here to a shotgun
So put your hands up hun, start the machine
Can I ask you one more question?
Let's drive this, into the sea,
And it's stitched my throat here to a shotgun
So put your hands up hun, start the machine
And can I ask you one more question?

Ole

So wrap your lips around these lies
Wo oh oh oh and take your pills to stop the slip
Wo oh oh oh we're playing at a home team quarter breaker
(just to fall in love girl, love girl tonight)
We're swaying and the home team's swimming alone
But don't you swim alone tonight

Oh oh oh from the hospital
We're honorary members of the red carpet academy (and)
Oh oh oh from the hospital

We're honorary members of the red carpet academy.
