

And you're gonna remember me
Standing with my fist held high
Shooting down the stars above
Thunder pumping through my veins
Serotonin in my blood

Fighting back the fears I swear
I ain't ever gon' give up
Maybe this is who I am?
And now you got me screaming like

God damn
Throw me to the wolves
'Cause I can
Be everything you want and more
Maybe this ain't who I am

But this is what I live for

Kicking down the front door
This is what I live for
You and me baby gonna set the world on fire
And love me like your last call
This is what I live for
You and me baby gonna set the world on fire
And you're gonna remember me

Longing for the way you are
But wishing I was someone else
I saved you from the ocean deep
But guess I couldn't save myself

Fighting back the fear I swear
I ain't ever gon' give up
Maybe this is who I am?
And now you got me screaming like

God damn
Throw me to the wolves
'Cause I can
Be everything you want and more
Maybe this ain't who I am

But this is what I live for

Kicking down the front door
This is what I live for
You and me baby gonna set the world on fire
And love me like your last call
This is what I live for
You and me baby gonna set the world on fire
And you're gonna remember me

And I swear to god I'm through
But the devil keeps bringing me back to you
Yeah I swear to god I'm through
But the devil keeps bringing me back to you, back to you

But this is what I live for

Kicking down the front door
This is what I live for
You and me baby gonna set the world on fire
And love me like your last call
This is what I live for
You and me baby gonna set the world on fire
And you're gonna remember me

Throw me to the wolves
'Cause I can
You're gonna remember me
Maybe this ain't who I am
You're gonna remember me
This is what I live for
You're gonna remember me
You're gonna remember me
