

Maybe There's No Heaven

Short Stack

Welcome to the club
I'm fine but my demons
Cut into my skin like a scar

It's ingrained in my blood
I rise like a Phoenix
My brothers embraced in my arms

But I'm here
Biting my tongue
Bearing our souls out for both of my sons

Maybe I'm gone
Maybe I'm heartless but

But maybe we're just getting started

I just want to burn it down tonight
I'm just getting started
I just want to burn it down tonight
