

I Want More

Shotgun Messiah

people call me rebel hard to reach well I just don't subscribe to the shit you preach stay on the path, don't you play in the dirt nobody move, nobody gets hurt the devil loves an open mind touch yourself and you go blind nobody gets hurt

if that's what life is for why do I want more (I want more)
gotta live today cuz when I'm old it's too late won't let it slip away

mother cries and wonders where she failed
father says the fast lane leads to hell
