

Maybe Maybe Maybe

Showaddywaddy

Woah woah woah, dream on.

Maybe maybe maybe, I'll have you for me,

Baby baby baby, I'll find a love of my own like you,

I'll find a love of my own.

I could write a million songs, but then I might not have the time,

So I'll have to say how sweet you are, in but a simple rhyme.

There could never be a girl in this whole world to match your style,

When you flash your big brown eyes my way and slowly start to smile.

Only one thing that is on my mind is here today but gone, tomorrow so dream on.

Maybe maybe maybe, I'll have you for me,

Baby baby baby, I'll find a love of my own like you,

I'll find a love of my own.

Only one thing that is on my mind is here today but gone, tomorrow so dream on.

Maybe maybe maybe, I'll have you for me,

Baby baby baby, I'll find a love of my own like you,

I'll find a love of my own.

Maybe maybe maybe, I'll have you for me,

Baby baby baby, I'll find a love of my own like you,

I'll find a love of my own.
