

You Always Stand Me Up

Showaddywaddy

You say I'm a lucky fella, but you always change your mind
I always make it out to be, a very special kind, kind
To leave me sad and lonely, you've got me on a string
You treat me bad, you make me mad
I want the real thing, thing

(But you always stand me up)
Always stand me up
(Always stand me up)

Well I got my reservations, that's keeping you from doin'
The games you play that makes you say
"Am I misunderstood?"

('Cause you always stand me up)
Always stand me up
(Always stand me up)

You leave me sad and lonely, you've got me on a string
You treat me bad, you make me mad
I want the real thing, thing

But you always stand me up
Always stand me up
Always stand me up
