

Second Chance

Showoff

As your heart engulfs mine
Time will speak unspoken words
And it's true, love is hard to find
As the tears fall from my eyes

And you want to go out alone
And tomorrow you'll need me
Every time you go away
Every time you go away
Every time you go away
Yeah my heart breaks

And as distance becomes clear
Shadows cast their memories
And its true, love is what I fear
Your love brings me to my knees

And you want to go out alone
And tomorrow you'll need me
Every time you go away
Every time you go away
Every time you go away
Yeah my heart breaks

And the first time that I saw you
I was burning with desire
And the last time that I saw you
Because you put out the fire

And you want to go out alone
And tomorrow you'll need me
Every time you go away
Every time you go away
Every time you go away
Yeah my heart breaks
