

Nowadays
The thought of you remains
Days like these I wish I was just twenty-three

To save me
And you by ditching there
Reality check
I'll probably miss you now

Pick up the pieces
Truly hurt with every sentence
The time has gone
But you won't stop
Obliviating
The things that I've been in
All the time we've spent
Revive, think back

Your face, my face
The jokes we made
You know what's worst of all?
Holding in my own sin
You lie, I lie
You run, where've you been?
You know what's worst of all?
It's all again

To sit down here all, it's just me
To conceal these memories
To be here tonight
And won't be able to reach your skin

Probably you're the one
Probably you think I'm right
Still gonna go our ways
Our dreams will just dictate

Nowadays
The thought of you remains
Days like these I wish I was just twenty-three

To save me
And you by ditching there
Reality check
I'll probably miss you now

I'll probably miss you now, whatever happens
Probably miss you now
We did say this, I'll probably miss you now
Is this better? Please remember

Over and over you said
Me and you will
Deeper and deeper connect

And now your face in my face
The jokes we made

You know what's worst of all?

You run, where've you been?
You know what's worst of all?

To sit down here all, it's just me
To be here tonight

But still gonna go our ways

You know, baby, yeah
I got nothing to say
Seems like replay
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Won't accept that from you
Is gonna break through
We tried

You won't be in my way
Even though
You know
You got me marked deep inside
Deep you know
It's true
You won't be in my way
You know
